

Become a Member of South Mountain Heritage Society

South Mountain Heritage Society (SMHS) is dedicated to preserving and interpreting the history of Burkittsville. As a non-profit, volunteer-driven organization, we value the support of our members who make it possible for us to collect and preserve the cultural resources of the Burkittsville area, provide exhibits and programming which encourage visitors to discover our unique story, and to maintain the historic Resurrection Reformed Church for the benefit of future generations in our community.

Your support is critical to enabling SMHS to continue living out this important mission in our community and we invite you to join us as a member. With your annual membership contribution, you will receive our biannual newsletter South Mountain Tidings, free assistance in conducting research from our archival and reference collections, and a 10% discount on purchases of our publications and our annual Gigantic Used-Book Sale (held each October).
